

ACKU has an auditorium that seats 150 people comfortably. There is a low stage, with a lectern and if required a panel table. We can provide amplification and a laptop, screen and projector. It is suitable for lectures, larger seminars and it has also been used for film screenings, concerts and job fairs. If you are interested in hiring the auditorium for events, please contact communications@acku.edu.af for details of availability and charges.

